

FEMA Repair Assistance Requires Proof of Ownership

To prove ownership, applicants can provide the following documents:

PROOF OF OWNERSHIP DOCUMENTS

- Deed or title
- Mortgage documentation
- Homeowners insurance documentation
- Property tax receipt or Property tax bill
- Manufactured home certificate of title
- Home Purchase contracts (excludes Rent to Own contracts)
- Last will and testament (and death certificate) naming applicant heir to the property

Receipts for major repairs or maintenance may be acceptable if no other documentation exists.

The fastest and easiest way to send FEMA your Proof of Ownership documents is by uploading them Online at DisasterAssistance.gov.

FEMA

Call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-FEMA (3362)
(Press 2 for Spanish),
If you use a relay service such as a videophone, InnoCaption
or CapTel give FEMA the number for that service

FEMA Assistance Requires Proof of Occupancy

Owners and renters applying for FEMA assistance must be able to prove that they lived in the residence before receiving most types of assistance.

Learn which documents you can provide.

PROOF OF OCCUPANCY DOCUMENTS

- Lease or housing agreement
- Rent receipts
- Utility bill (electric, water/sewer, etc.)
- Pay stub
- Bank, credit card statement
- Driver's license, state issued identification card, or voter registration card
- Public official's statement

Any document provided must include your name and address.

The fastest and easiest way to send FEMA your Proof of Occupancy documents is by uploading them Online at DisasterAssistance.gov.

FEMA

Call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-FEMA (3362)
(Press 2 for Spanish),
If you use a relay service such as a videophone, InnoCaption
or CapTel give FEMA the number for that service