Message From The Chief

Greetings Inkster Community,

As we move into the heart of summer, I want to take a moment to thank each of you for your continued support and partnership. July is a time for celebration, reflection, and unity – and here in Inkster, it's also a time for connection.

From summer camps to neighborhood gatherings, our officers have enjoyed engaging with residents of all ages. These interactions not only build trust but also strengthen the bond between the police department and the community we proudly serve.

This summer, keep an eye out for our Inkster Police & Fire Ice Cream Truck, which will be popping up at various locations throughout the city offering free ice cream and smiles to residents young and old. It's just one more way we're serving up safety and sweet treats!

As we prepare for events like National Night Out, I encourage you to stay involved, stay informed, and most importantly, stay safe. Our commitment to transparency, accountability, and community-first policing remains stronger than ever.

Thank you for helping us make Inkster a safer and more connected place to live, work, and grow.

With appreciation,
Chief Tamika Jenkins

CROSS GENERATIONAL PROGRAM

This unique program is designed to create meaningful connections between youth and seniors while fostering the exchange of valuable skills and knowledge.

Through this program, young participants will have the opportunity to learn essential life skills such as cooking, traditional games, music, and more from our senior community members. In return, they will share their own knowledge by teaching seniors useful skills in technology, exercise, games, music, and more.

KEEP A WATCHFUL EYE: ENSURING THE SAFETY OF OUR CHILDREN

At the Inkster Police Department, the safety of our community's youngest members is always a top priority. Recently, we've seen a concerning increase in reports of young children wandering away from their homes or getting lost in neighborhoods. While we're grateful that these incidents have been resolved safely, they serve as an important reminder: constant supervision is critical.

Young children are naturally curious and adventurous, which can lead them to explore areas without understanding the dangers involved. It only takes a moment for a child to slip out of sight — and a few minutes can make all the difference in ensuring their safety.

We urge all parents, guardians, and caregivers to:

- Double-check doors and locks. Make sure exits are secure, especially during busy or distracting times.
- Communicate with your children. Teach them about safety, including the importance of staying close to trusted adults.
- Stay alert. Avoid distractions when supervising young children, whether at home, in the yard, or out in the community.
- Know your neighbors. Building strong community ties can help keep an extra set of eyes on our children.
- Update emergency contact information. Make sure your children know their home address and a parent or guardian's phone number if they are old enough to memorize it.

Our officers are committed to responding quickly when a child is reported missing, but prevention is the best protection. Together, we can work to ensure every child in Inkster grows up safe, secure, and supported.

If you see a young child alone or have any concerns, please don't hesitate to contact the Inkster Police Department immediately. Your vigilance could save a life.

Thank you for helping us keep our community safe!

SUMMER SAFETY TIPS

STAY SAFE, STAY COOL, AND HAVE FUN THIS SUMMER!

Summer in Inkster is all about sunshine, community fun, and outdoor activities. While you're enjoying all the season has to offer, the Inkster Police Department wants to remind you of a few important safety tips to help you and your family stay safe all summer long.

HEAT AWARENESS

- Stay hydrated—drink water even if you're not thirsty.
- Wear lightweight, light-colored clothing.
- Never leave children, pets, or elderly persons in parked vehicles.
- Take breaks in the shade or indoors during peak heat hours (12–4 PM).

FIREWORKS SAFETY

- Leave the big displays to the professionals.
- Never allow young children to handle fireworks.
- Keep a bucket of water or a hose nearby in case of fire.
- Be mindful of your neighbors, pets, and local ordinances.

BIKE & PEDESTRIAN SAFETY

- Make sure kids wear helmets and reflective gear.
- Teach children to look both ways before crossing streets.
- Be cautious when driving through neighborhoods and parks.

OFFICER SPOTLIGHT

ORDINANCE OFFICER PASLEY

Meet Officer Pasley, one of the dedicated faces behind the badge here at the Inkster Police Department. As an Ordinance Officer, she plays a key role in keeping our city clean, safe, and looking its best. From addressing property violations to ensuring city policies are followed, Officer Pasley helps protect the quality of life in our neighborhoods every single day.

Her work may not always be seen on the front lines, but her impact is felt throughout the community. Thank you, Officer Pasley, for your commitment to keeping Inkster beautiful and safe!

There's always something exciting happening in Inkster! This month, we're bringing you a lineup of events and activities designed to connect, inspire, and celebrate our community. Whether you're looking for family fun, opportunities to give back, or a chance to meet your neighbors, there's something for everyone. Check out what's happening around town and join us in making Inkster an even stronger, more vibrant place to call home. We can't wait to see you there!
